

Week 2
Discipleship Study
Questions

Teach Us To Pray

Many of us long to have a deeper prayer life -- and draw closer to God -- but we aren't sure how to grow in this spiritual discipline. The disciples asked Jesus directly, "Lord, teach us to pray." Jesus taught them a simple, powerful way to talk with God – we know it as the Lord's Prayer. Most of us know that prayer by heart, but like the disciples, we often have misconceptions and fears about prayer.

In the midst of our questions, God invites us to bring everything to him in prayer. God wants to be in a deep, close relationship with you, grow you as a disciple, and empower you to make disciples. The same is true for Christ The Rock as a community of believers -- and if we are really going to make that happen, we need to be a church that prioritizes prayer. We can't do it in our own strength. Join us to explore how Jesus taught us to pray, and ultimately, how we can be transformed into a people of prayer.

Read the Scripture:

Individual: Read the passage from two or three different translations.

Group: Have two different group members read the passage using different Bible translations.

Speak the Scripture:

Individual: Recite the story aloud from memory (as best you can) or tell it to a friend or family member. The goal here is to get the essence of the passage in your heart.

Group: Have someone volunteer to recite the passage aloud in their own words, as best they can.

Understand the Scripture:

Individual or Group: Use the Discovery Questions to help ensure you understand the passage.

Dig Deeper into the Scripture:

Individual: Work through the Digging Deeper questions and pray about what God reveals to you through His word. Discuss with a Christian friend or family member if you choose.

Group: Work through the Digging Deeper questions as a group, celebrating the work God is already doing in each person's life, and encouraging each other to trust Him in the places that need growth.

Small Group Guidelines

This is a Safe Group

Confidentiality is key—what is said in the group stays in the group. Be aware how you are affecting the environment with your words, actions, and non-verbal communication. This needs to be a place where people feel comfortable opening up and sharing.

No Crosstalk

Be considerate of others as they are sharing. No side conversations, phone time, texting etc.

Listen

Let's value one another by listening to what is being shared. Allow a pause after someone shares to allow them to finish and others to consider what was said. Eye contact and body posture play key roles in creating a positive or negative group environment.

No Rescuing or Fixing

We are not here to fix each other; Jesus does that part. Avoid the tendency to rescue when someone is struggling to get the words out or shares a struggle or conviction.

Use "I" Statements

It's easy to talk about the issues of others, or respond with "we," "us," or "the church," but for us to grow as disciples and build relationships, we want to use "I" statements.

Don't Over-Talk

We want to create time for all members of the group to participate in the discussion. Be careful not to always be the first responder or regularly give long responses.

Fight for Relationship

It's not if conflict or hurt feelings will happen, but when. We commit to fight for relationship with each other. Go to the person and share your struggle or seek wise advice if you are not sure how to handle the conflict.

Week 1

Background: When the disciples asked Jesus to teach them to pray, he gave them a model and a framework that we now know as the Lord's Prayer. Jesus teaches us the key components of prayer and invites us to imitate him as we also approach the Father in prayer. And the fact that we can approach the holy Creator God of the universe as Abba Father is an invitation to grow closer to Him through prayer.

Read: Matthew 6:9-13 (focus on verse 9)

Discovery Questions:

What do we learn about God in this passage?

What do we learn about what it means to be a follower of Christ in this passage?

What do you think the Holy Spirit might be teaching you personally through this passage?

Is there anything God is leading you to do after reading this passage?

Digging Deeper:

What is your previous experience with the Lord's Prayer? Have you prayed it a lot or not at all?

When Jesus addressed God directly, he always called Him "Father" (except for once on the cross). How do you address God in prayer? Why does Jesus tell us to address God as Father?

What can we do to hallow the name of God? What do we do that can have the opposite effect?

Why does Jesus tell us to start our prayers with recognizing who God is, where He is, and the power of His name? Are there any changes you need to make in your prayer life to fit Jesus' instructions?

End this time with a prayer.

Heavenly Father, we praise you for being an Abba Father that we can come to in prayer. Forgive us our idolatry and how we put ourselves before you in our prayers. Give us a right perspective on heaven and on Your name that we may seek to glorify You and keep You in Your right place of honor. Amen.
